A COLLECTION OF PAINTINGS

PAULINE HILDRETH

Pauline Hildreth is an English born artist who now resides in Vancouver. Her Art reflects a personal view of the world where creative output is very much influenced by past and present experience. Bold brush strokes and striking composition overlay her celebration of life and understanding of the world around her.

Pauline's art is her conduit of communication. It allows others to share her personal world and through her works perhaps recognise common threads that they value through their own interpretations of the world.

Pauline's philosophy of art is that it be personal, public, and accessible. By sharing with others, her art reaches out and connects to the most basic humanistic behaviours: to comfort, inspire, stimulate, or merely reflect and enjoy a simple pleasure.
